While it is the purpose of the Postoffice Department to abolish free-delivery service in some sections of certain states, those changes will not affect Kentucky. No new services are being established in Kentucky at this time, nor will any be established until after the excitement attending the recent election recommended for Kentucky, and are now the Cubans desire to be. under consideration by the Rural Free Delivery Division of the Postoffice Department, but until full and complete reports are received no action will be taken in these cases.

The Companion's New Calendar.

The Youth's Companion Calendar for 1900 is unique in form and beautiful in design. The United States, and will be so long as an oval centerpiece, in high colors and enclosed in a border of flawers represents, "A Dream circumstances, be that for one month of Summer" and is supported on either side or forever." by an admirably executed figure piece in delicate tints. The whole is delightful in sentiment and in general effect. Larger than any of The Companion's previous Calendars. it is equally acceptable as a work of art. As an ornament to the home it will take a preeminent place.

The Calendar is published exclusively by the Companion. It cannot be obtained elsewhere. It will be given to all new subscribers York companies who are now working for 1900, who will also receive, in addition to abourd the Spanish cruiser Cristobal the fifty-two issues of the new volume, all Colon, of Admiral Cervera's squadron, the new issues for the remaining weeks of say that the vessel may easily be raised. 1899, free from the time of subscription In view of the fact, they say, that the Hiustrated Announcement Number, contain- Colon has not a single perforation being a full prospectus of the volume for 1900. low the water line, Naval Constructor will be sent free to any address.

MODERN DEMOCRACY.

The Same in Name, But How Wonderfully It Has Changed!

John K. Cowen in The Baltimore Herald tells an old story which illustrates the position of the honest Democrat who is trying to support the Democratic party of today.

OPPOSED TO REFORMS

Difficulties Attending Administration of Justice in Cuba.

Efforts to Change the Spirit, Methods and Technicalities of the Spanish Law Not Heartly Upheld by Cubans.

The difficulties attending the administration of justice in Cuba are pointedly brought out in reports to the judge advocate general of the army, Gen. Lieber, whose annual report has just been It has been decided to call the National made public. Maj. Dudley, at Havana, states in the course of a report:

"The present situation here has no exact precedent, in that, during a time | for the last ten years, I have met more people of peace, we are in temporary military The Postoffice Department has blacklisted occupation of a friendly territory, not our own land, pledged to discharge the obligations that may, under international law, result from the fact of such occupation, for the protection of life property, and to withdraw from the island so soon as a stable government of its own shall be established.

"The opposition to a complete change of the spirit, methods and technicalities of the Spanish law, as now maintained in the system of 'Incommunicado,' for example, is especially surprising. But though slow in coming, the assertion of such personal rights and liberties as are already enjoyed by Americans under American law will come sooner or later, as being essential has passed away. There are several services to a free, self-governing people, such as Wreckers Take Issue with Hobson as to the Spanish Warship, Cristobal Colon.

The wreckers in the employ of New Hobson's recommendation that the wreck be dismantled and abandoned is silly. The wreckers say the vessel clearly was sunk by the Spaniards, and that the expenditure of $50,000 would save a splendid souvenir of the naval victory of Santiago.

These wreckers, who have spent the last two months taking out the Cristobal Colon's brasswork, involved the warship in new hostilities when a secand band of wreckers attempted to board the vessel. Ten shots were fired A Lancaster county Dutchman once went in the melee and the second band was
